

MAKING A WILL? Legacies for missions.

Registered Charity No. 18021

Why leave a gift to Irish Mission Agencies Partnership?

Through your will you have the chance of making a lasting impact after departing this world. Leaving a legacy gift to Irish Mission Agencies Partnership can be one of the most extraordinary and long-lasting gifts that anyone will ever be able to give.

Support to missions.

As Irish Mission Agencies Partnership work is funded heavily through private donations your legacy will directly benefit the work of our partners and projects that you specify.

You can indeed specify which iMAP partner or project or the designation of your gift by location or ministry type. The distribution of your donation will be overseen by Irish Mission Agencies Partnership committee in Ireland to ensure its allocation. We will follow your instructions given to us by you or your executor / solicitor.

Irish Mission Agencies Partnership commitment.

Irish Mission Agencies Partnership is committed to THE Great Commission in the advancement of the Gospel in the world to all peoples. We want to ensure that any support designated to various ministries is distributed to that end in accordance with the donor's wishes.

By making a bequest to Irish Mission Agencies Partnership you will leave the potential for your ministry to continue to enrich the spiritual life to others.

The suggested wording of a bequest to Irish Mission Agencies Partnership may be helpful.

It is advised to seek the assistance of your solicitor or advisor in drawing up a will.
